

House Resolution No. 2907

Whereas, as the 2003-2004 school year draws to a close, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives pause to applaud the career achievements of those individuals who are retiring from the field of education; and

Whereas, the Jefferson City Public School District is losing a valuable member of its faculty on May 26, 2004, with the retirement of Marcus Webb Kollmeyer who has devoted several years of his life to the education of this state's young citizens through tireless endeavors as an educator; and

Whereas, Marcus Kollmeyer has served five years as Principal of Cedar Hill Elementary School, where he is held in high esteem for his overall competence and successful leadership; and

Whereas, deeply committed to the great cause of learning, Marcus Kollmeyer has been employed by the Jefferson City Public School District for thirty years, during which time he has worked as a math teacher at West Elementary School; physical education teacher, Assistant Principal, and Principal at North Elementary School; Principal at Southwest Elementary; and his current position as Principal at Cedar Hill Elementary School; and

Whereas, prior to assuming his responsibilities with the Jefferson City Public School District, Marcus Kollmeyer was a teacher in Springfield, Illinois, for two years; and

Whereas, Marcus Kollmeyer derives a tremendous amount of spiritual fulfillment through his affiliation with Trinity Lutheran Church, where he is a member of the Men's Choir and the Mixed Choir; and

Whereas, Marcus Kollmeyer has been blessed with the love and support of a wonderful family whose members include his wife, Judith E. Kollmeyer; his children and their spouses, Amy L. Kollmeyer, Sara J. and Dr. Mace Nosovitch, Joseph S. and Tasha Kollmeyer, and Caleb Kollmeyer; and two grandchildren, Logan Nosovitch and Julia Kollmeyer:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, join the Jefferson City Public School District in expressing appreciation for the unparalleled service that Marcus Kollmeyer has rendered to Missouri's children and in wishing him the long, fruitful, and enjoyable retirement that he so justly deserves; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Marcus Webb Kollmeyer, as a measure of our esteem for him.
